STATEMENT BY MINISTER

INSTITUTION OF NATIONAL AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING WORK DONE IN ERADICATING UNTOUCHABILITY AND COMBATING ATROCITIES ON SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES.

THE MINISTER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MEIRA KUMAR): Sir, I am glad to inform this august House that the Government of India has decided to institute National Awards to be given to Non-Governmental Organisation or Human Rights' activits who have done outstanding fieldwork in the area of eradicating untouchability and in combating offences of atrocities under the Prevention of Civil Rights Act, 1995 and the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Terrorists) Act of 1989. There shall be totally four awards every year covering both the categories. Awards to individual activists shall carry an amount of Rs. 2 lakhs and to an institution shall carry an amount of Rs. 5 lakhs. The wards will be given to outstanding NGOs or Human Rights' activists in each of the four regions of the country, namely, Norths, South, East and West for rendering yeoman service in the said fields. More than one recipient or organisation may share the award. The award will be instituted in 2007, and would be given annually thereafter. The award is open to all Indian NGOs and Human Rights' activists without any distinction or discrimination on ground of race. sex, caste or creed. The Screening Committee and finally, the Selection Committee constituted for the purpose would consider the achievements of the NGOs or individual Human Rights' activists nominated/recommended for Award by the prescribed authority. For the 2007 Award, the Screening Committee and the Selection Commitee would consider nominations received up to 31st January, 2007.
